SAINTS SCORE LATE WINNER UNDER THREATENING SKIES

ST GEORGE 1 STANMORE HAWKS 0

Under leaden skies and in increasingly cool and windy conditions at Rockdale Soccer Centre on Sunday two sides who had already played 180 minutes of football and only scored one goal between them during the season, fought out a tense and competitive match that again failed to deliver a goal to a patient crowd, until seven minutes into extra time.

The game was played in a very competitive manner with many good passages of play, especially during the first half.

Stanmore went into the game weakened by the absence of their two strikers, the suspended Socrates Bakafoukas and the injured Malcolm Adams, but St George were at full strength.

Stefan Janic, who was later to be replaced with a twisted knee, just after the hour mark, almost maintained his recent scoring form when, in the 5th minute, his glancing header from a cross on the left by Leo Carle was brilliantly tipped over the bar by Paul Kypreanou.

From the resultant corner the keeper again came to the rescue pushing the ball onto the bar before it was scrambled clear. It was all St George at that early stage.

Stanmore picked up their game and in the 19th Achilles Markopoulos, featuring in a much more forward role than normal, strolled through the defence on the right, got to the byline and cut a ball back which Nick Kambounias converged on, only to see Mark Brennan hook the ball to safety from the goal line.

In the 26th Alex Araujo got away down the left and cut in past a defender only to drive his shot wildly over the bar from close range for the Saints.

Stanmore again had a good chance in the 28th when Markopoulos tested the keeper with a fierce drive that he held well, down low and Trinity Allen also did well to snatch the ball from the head of Eddie Briscoe in the goalmouth in the 35th after a pinpoint cross from the left by Peter Kypreos.

Kyprianou in the Stanmore goal made another superb save in the 37th turning a powerful shot from Gordon Sutherland around the post after the right flanker had burst through the defence and into the six yard area.

ACHILLEAS MARKOPOULOS tries to get around LOUIS DOUNIS (no. 10)

Mark Brennan lifted a free kick over the bar in the first period, but seemed likely to do better with a clever lob in the 58th, when the ball dipped late, but Kyprianou again came to the rescue with a last ditch save over the bar.

Chances continued to fall at both ends but the defences were well disciplined and nothing looked like getting through at either end towards the end.

Kartambis and Briscoe had close shots for the Hawks and Luke Cairney and Sutherland were off target for the Saints in the closing stages.

A goal was disallowed in the third minute of extra time when Louis Dounis got away on the right and delivered a good cross, but in attempting to finish Leo Carle fouled the keeper before bundling the ball over the line.

The winner came to everyone's relief when Dounis found some space on the left of the area and was well spotted by Araujo whose threaded pass allowed the experienced striker to go on and beat the last defender and the keeper for a 1-0 win.

St George player-coach Paul Carter remarked after the game that he had been under pressure from supporters to leave Dounis out of the starting line up, due to a below par goalscoring tally this term, but the former Canterbury striker is a big match performer and it needed someone with his class to score the vital winner on this occasion.

Stanmore can at least expect to be stronger for their next game, once players return, while the Saints will be concerned about the fitness of Janic who aggravated an old knee injury in the second half of an at times bruising encounter.

ST GEORGE: Allen, Brennan, Carter, Verrander, Price, L. Carle, Sutherland, Janic (Cairney 67), Dounis, Araujo
STANMORE: Kyprianou, Bolianitis, A. Lara, Shepherd, Costanti (Morales 14), Paradisis, Kypreos, Kambounias, Briscoe, Markopoulos, Kartambis

U21 Preliminary semi final
St GEORGE 3 PENRITH PANTHERS 0

A rare mistake by Penrith's young keeper Luke Martin, who has been starring in first grade for much of the season, allowed St George to score an early goal at Rockdale and then proceed to exploit the error later to put added pressure on the young custodian.

A high ball pumped into the penalty area, from the left, by Angelo Hatziantoniou in the 2nd minute looked harmless enough, with nobody arriving to meet it other than the keeper, but Martin misjudged his catching attempt and the ball deflected off his trailing leg and into the gaping net.

Seven minutes later it was 2-0 as a move begun on the right saw Luke Cairney cut the ball back from the byline for Anthony Adamo to tap in at close range.

When brother James Adamo, the Saints' keeper, came outside his area to claim a ball which the wind had taken beyond his reach inside it, a free kick was awarded to Penrith that looked yielding its reward, but Daniel Lownds driven shot was glanced over the bar to safety by Saints' defender Ryan Toombs in the 30th minute.

In the 40th a left side attack had Martin fully stretched to save a low shot from Cairney who had got on the end of the cross from Hatziantoniou.

A further goal by Adamo in the 57th made it hard for the Penrith side to come back though David Close did have a late attempt ruled out for offside.

Penrith were unfortunate in having to play this game many miles from where their senior side was in action and as a result there had to be a compro mise on which players would be available at each venue.

Aaron Murray and Michael Skeggs played well for Penrith, while Under-18 player Cameron Ejea did well on his promotion to the older age group for this match.

ST GEORGE: J. Adamo, Campbell, Toombs, Stone, O'Han. Simonovski, Mullan, Kuzmanoski, Cairney (Carroll), A. Adamo (Chrisikos), Hatziantoniou (Danaskos)
PENRITH: Martin, Close, Andrews, King, Buckpitt, Murphy, Toland, Ejea, Sceggs, O'Connell, Lownds

PENRITH 1 MOOREBANK 0

While the Under 18 Panthers were not at their very best on the day they did dig deep and overcame a number of injuries to key personnel to take their place in the Major semi final with a gutsy 1-0 win.

David Sigsworth, Josh Lynch, Jason Pollock and Steve Seymour all put in good performances and the side eventually prevailed when a Glen McPherson got on the end of a corner to net the winner in the 61st minute.

Moorebank missed a good chance in the 11th minute when Willoughby's shot was touched over the bar by Panthers' keeper Obradovic.

Goalscorer STEFAN JANIC shields the ball.

Other chances came at both ends, but the workmanlike effort by the Penrith side won them the game at the finish.

PENRITH: Obradovic, Andison, Sigsworth, Wells, Carneiro, Lynch, Macpherson (Stow), Seymour (Zalewski), Flammia (Sumeghy), Petrovski (Maco), Pollock

ELIMINATION SEMI FINAL
PANTHERS RECOVER TO SAVAGE THE LIONS
PENRITH 3 ILLAWARRA LIONS 1

Penrith Panthers have been busy developing youth in recent seasons and the policy has paid off this season with many of the younger brigade stepping into the breach when a horror stretch of injuries has left the senior side decimated over the concluding weeks of the season.

The Penrith camp have lost David Fitzharris, Steve Sweeney, Brad Collier, Chris Ackerley and Brett Buckpitt in recent times and the opportunities have been taken by players such as Jon Hawkins, Karim Balloot, Steve Dimovski, Robert Wozniczka, Paul Cleary, Garth Tehliwec, Allan Picken and Kaan Davies, graduates of the youth scheme.

In the game at Lynwood Park against Illawarra Lions, a side Penrith had beaten twice already this season, the Lions were able to take the lead somewhat against the run of play in the 38th minute through 18 year old Negovan Stefoski, a recent recruit to the senior side after playing with the Under 18s for much of the season.

The setback did not perturb Penrith who fought back to equalise in the 43rd when a mistake in the Lions' defence gave Tehliwec the chance to steer the ball into the net.

One of Illawarra's better players, Sandro Borsato, was replaced at the break and that may have unbalanced the side.

The Panthers dominated the second period and controlled most of the play after the break.

A corner on the hour mark was cleared by the Lions' keeper Jarrod Bone to the feet of Allan Picken and the young striker wasted no time in planting the ball into the net for a 2-1 lead.

Picken had a strong hand in Penrith's third goal in the 85th minute, the result of a counter attack after Illawarra had thrown their men forward in a late effort to work their way back into the game.

Picken provided the pass that allowed Danny Hinton to make it 3-1 and that was the end of the Lions for another year.

Richard Astone, Ben Wright Kaan Davies and skipper Bob Casserly all had fine games for Penrith, while the Illawarra team was best served by Velemir Kupresak, Borsato and Jim Melissourgos.

PENRITH PANTHERS: Gibson, Grima (P. Cleary), Hawkins, Davies, Wright, Higgins (Wozniczka), Casserly, Tehliwec, Hinton, Astone, Picken

A C UNITED 2 MOOREBANK 1

A very spirited Under 21 game was played at Lynwood Park and as the match drew to a conclusion tempers began to fray noticeably.

Moorebank led from a 30th minute penalty converted by Craig Achurch after Spiro Rompies had been sent sprawling in the area by an A C defender.

A C United bounced back through Michael Maim with a super strike in the 42nd minute and the A C began to get right on top thereafter and it came as no great surprise when Rodney Toomey cracked the winner past Alex Sanchez in the 59th minute.

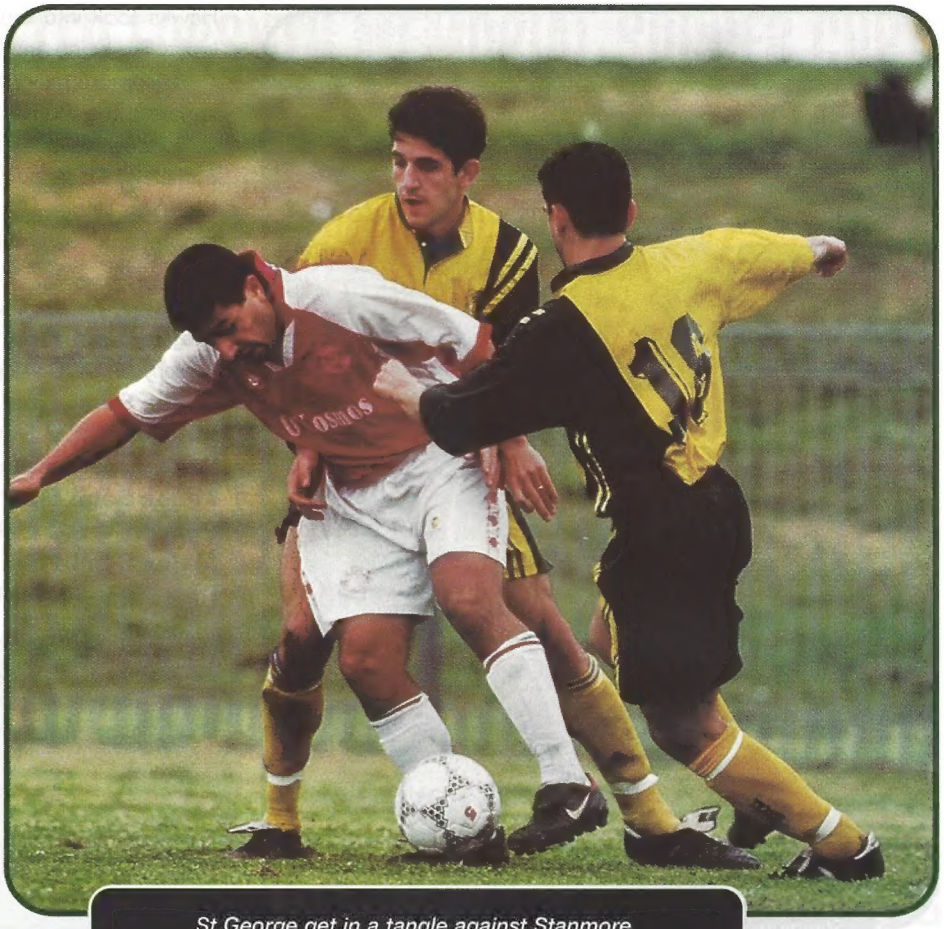
STANMORE 1 MANLY WARRINGAH 0

Manly made most of the early running in the elimination semi-final, but the Stanmore keeper Joe Lemora had a very sound match and the defence stood firm throughout the game after George Gambrellis had put them ahead in the 38th minute.

The goal came when a long ball was played down the line to Gambrellis and after taking on three defenders he slotted it home nicely.

There were two further second half chances for the Hawks which fell to Daniel Piatta and Gambrellis respectively, but it was mainly the defence which could take most of the credit.

STANMORE: Lemora, Harapas, Papadopoulos, Repeti, Tsirigiotis (Jawad), Economidis, Phizipou, Guerrero, Gambrellis, Piatta (Karabetsos), Acepidis
MANLY WARRINGAH: Lowek, Szewczyk (Tomas), Keussen, Chilvers, Gosling, Durdevich, Yates, Greco, Hayden, Jones, Scriven (Cordi)
Referee: Brendon Skinner
Scorer: George Gambrellis 38th.



St George get in a tangle against Stanmore.

mid-week action

In the final match of the regular season, staged on the preceding Monday, Illawarra Lions beat Stanmore 1-0 with a 70th minute goal from Desimir Tosveski which allowed them to clamber into fourth spot for the season, after an inauspicious start to the campaign that saw a number of senior players released at the mid-point of the season.

MAJOR AND MINOR SEMI FINALS PREVIEW

The possible loss by St George of Stefan Janic with a twisted ankle might give premiers Manly Warringah a chance to beat the Saints for the first time this season when the two sides meet in the Major Semi Final on Sunday.

The Saints were likely to make at least one change anyway, bringing in another left sided player to deal with the potent Manly attack, but the Dolphins have been off the boil for a while now and need to lift if they are to see off the St George side this time.

St George may be at full strength anyway as Janic is expected to see a specialist during the week if his injury does not respond to treatment.

In the Under 21s Manly-Warringah meets St George which should be another excellent contest, while the under 18s is the Moorebank-Stanmore match, a game that gives the former a chance for success after the club's senior and Under 21 teams missed out on any glory this year.

The other venue for games has Penrith's three teams together on the same programme which gives them more flexibility with substitutions and team selections.

They may find Stanmore a very hard nut to crack, though, as the Hawks' defence has been very sound in the last few months.

Stanmore's record against Penrith is a 0-0 draw at home and a 1-0 win away and that game was a memorably bruising encounter.

It is virtually the same record the Stanmore's PAUL KYPRIANOU takes the high ball well.

Hawks took into their game with St George last weekend and it looks like being another tight one for both sides.

Stanmore may be able to break through, but it is impossible to separate the teams on current form.

Under 21s sees Penrith take on A C United who are a strong outfit and who have no first grade duties to concern them here, while the Under 18s pits A C United with Penrith who edged out Moorebank last weekend.

Indoor Soccer

The Indoor Soccer (Five A Side) Association of NSW has just completed a successful tour of New Zealand with the NSW Secondary Schools 15 year old girls and boys state representative teams.

The girls' team played thirteen games over the two weeks and only lost one.

The boys were undefeated on the tour winning every game.

These teams were chosen from the various zone championships that are held throughout NSW and culminating in the ISA NSW State School Championships held at Lidcombe in March.

Auckland Secondary Schools Representative teams were selected to play against the NSW teams in the final matches of the tour and once again the NSW teams were successful, with the results being as follows.

NSW GIRLS 4
AUCKLAND SECONDARY SCHOOLS 2

NSW GIRLS 3
SOUTH AUCKLAND SECONDARY SCHOOLS 1

NSW BOYS 5
AUCKLAND SECONDARY SCHOOLS 1

In one game the girls defeated the New Zealand Schools Outdoor Champions who had not been beaten in two years.

Overall the commitment, discipline and behavior from all the players was very good and showed in their results.

The teams were:-

ROUND TWENTY ONE SUMMARY

FRASER AND HAJDUK BOTH WIN, BUT AT THE BOTTOM THE TENSION INCREASES FOR SYDNEY DISTRICT AND HILLS

After winning the Under 18's premiership struggling Hills United was able to promote some members of that successful side to assist the first grade campaign to avoid relegation.

It was probably the influx of these players that made all the difference against Belmore on Saturday where the game at Fred Caterson Reserve started with Hills knowing that a win was the only result they could achieve to further their cause.

With this in mind they took the field fully fired up and proceeded to attack from the kick off.

Unfortunately for them, after a mere 14 minutes, Nathan Hall managed a speculative, long range chip at goal which beat Hills' keeper Abdul Alamedine and crept under the crossbar.

Undaunted by this set back, as it was against the flow of the game, the Hills' determination on this occasion did not let up for a moment and they were rewarded when Omar Makki scored in the 24th after a good build up had been started by former Hills' junior Robbie Jurcevic, who gained possession in midfield, passed to Rick Moscato who then crossed it on to Makki to find the net for the equaliser with an excellent volley.

After numerous attempts by Hills the score again, it remained 1-1 at the break.

The second half began with a penalty being awarded to Hills, only their second this season, which came after 63 minutes when Mario Galatola was brought down in the box.

The reliable Makki once again put his name on the scoreboard with a well-taken spot kick.

Hills continued to dominated and Makki completed his hat-trick two minutes later

At this point Belmore changed their keeper with a field player, but this did not help their cause because Mario Galatola, who had been promoted from the under 18's, marked the occasion by scoring his debut goal in first grade with an excellent volley after the ball had been crossed in from the right in the 88th for the solid and much needed 4-1 win by the home side.

Meanwhile at the weekend the top two sides both managed wins, Hajduk seeing off a strong challenge from Mount Pritchard to prevail 2-0 and Fraser Park putting paid to Sydney University's hopes of glory with a 4-2 win on campus.

Following consecutive losses which saw the competition lead surrendered to Fraser Park, Hajduk Wanderers took the field against Mount Pritchard again weakened by injuries.

They played with plenty of heart, however, gaining the lead as early as the second minute.

Damien Brown showed some brilliant ball skills to jinx his way into the area and beat the Mounties' keeper with a smart finish, maintaining his solid scoring form that sees him stay in touch with leading scorer Matthew Zec of Fraser Park.

The Hajduk defence was better organised thanks to the return of sweeper Darren Camilleri and it was with this solid backing that attacks could be mounted with added confidence.

Hajduk were going well and after many good attacking moves they won a penalty in the 78th minute when a handball was spotted by the referee after a Jack Costello shot had rocked the crossbar .

Brown stepped up to take it, but this time fired straight at Matt Darwen, leaving the game still hanging in the balance.

This was not longer the case, however, after the 81st minute when Costello managed to find the net from outside the 18 yard area with another typical long range drive. Paul Croci began the game for Hajduk but his replacement, Tony Krslovic, rattled the crossbar for the second game in a row just before full time.

The win leaves the side still three points adrift of Fraser Park. Hurstville ZSC managed a 1-1 draw at home to University of NSW and had to overcome the loss of striker Ivan Maric who was a first half send off victim.

Jonathan Dimoch opened the scoring for the students, who have been struggling for points this term, but Gary Deprato levelled for Hurstville and a fighting second half saw no addition to the score and a point for both sides was not going to be seen as a bad outcome for either club.

Greystanes held Arncliffe to 0-0 at Bathurst Street Park, a result that ensures that Arncliffe and Hurstville maintain their spots in the top four for another week.

It was up to Sydney University in midweek to beat Sydney District to stay in the hunt, a result which would consign District to relegation.

Sydney District could only draw 2-1 with Mount Druitt at Camdenville Oval, a result that left them four adrift of Hills, following that team's Saturday win over Belmore.

Danny Craven got District off to a great start when he found the net after only 5 minutes, but a Paul Graham penalty saw Mount Druitt draw level just three minutes later.

Mount Druitt then forged to the lead in the 65th minute when livewire midfielder Leigh Cross got his name on the scoresheet.A minute later it appeared that Malcolm Dominguez might have found a quick fire equaliser, but his shot was saved on the line by a defender's boot.

The equaliser came, instead, after 68 minutes when Dominguez moved from the back to let fly with a great right footer that beat Mount Druitt keeper T Sweeney all ends up.

Former first grade keeper Jeremy Wynn again took his place in the team as a field player, but on this occasion was unable to repeat his scoring feats of the previous weekend when he scored a brace of goals.

Sydney Uni put up a good performance on the Saturday against leaders Fraser Park remaining in the game until the dying stages when Fraser pulled a couple of rabbits out of the hat.

Sydney Uni held Fraser at bay for the first half hour, dealing effectively with the constant pressure and creating a few chances of their own into the bargain.

Uni keeper Matt Craw had a splendid match and denied the leading team's strikers a look in on numerous occasions.

Luke McDougall created a scare for Fraser when he latched onto a ball that came deep out of defence to hit a first time shot just over the bar in the first minute of the game.

An exchange of passes between Sasha Talevski and Ante Zizic saw the former player drive the ball just wide of the upright in the 17th minute.

Zec and Anthony Smith combined well to set up Talevski again in the next minute, this time Craw saving the low shot and reclaiming the loose ball before Zec could pounce.

In the 22nd a John Palapanis free kick from deep was nodded goalwards by Zec only to be deflected over the bar by a defender for a corner.

Zizic arrived in time to meet a Jon Flack cross from the right in the 28th, but could only find the crossbar with a typically powerful header.

But three minutes later Fraser were in front.

A corner from the left, despatched by Palapanis, was headed against the post by David Butt and when the ball rebounded Zizic nodded it into an inviting net.

Palapanis provided Matthew Remondos with a well weighted pass in the 34th minute, Craw coming off his line well to effect the blocking save. The first half came to a close with Zec dancing his way into the box only to see his smart turn and shot well saved at close range by the agile keeper.

David Gill almost scored an equaliser for the students five minutes after the restart when he got onto a long clearance to go on and lob the keeper,

Angelo Rodic, but the reliable Zaya Jerbraiel was there to lift the ball off the line

The students did get on level terms, though, in the 65th with a fast break that saw Rob Smithies cross from the left byline for McDougall to tuck the ball in at the near post.

The goal came after chances from Smith, Talevski and Zec had all been dealt with by the defence.

It took just 5 more minutes for Fraser to regain the lead, referee Larry Bittman pointing to the spot after Zec had been impeded going around his marker, Nick Taylor, after another powerful run into the area set up by a nice through pass by Zizic.

Similar appeals had been turned down in the first half, but the referee did not hesitate this time.

Jon Flack deceived Craw with a well-taken penalty for the 2-1 lead, before being replaced by Jeff Suzor.

In the 78th minute Suzor got away down the right and put over a very strong cross that Zec was able to meet at the far post with a solid finish.

Chris Bowman rattled the Fraser Park supporters in the 85th when he crossed smartly from the right and got the ball past the outstretched arms of Rodic, which allowed David Bromhead a free, stooping header at the far post.

Fraser's response was swift.

In another move instigated by Zizic, substitute Suzor lifted the ball high into the box and when Craw decided that it was going over the bar and made a token effort to reach it Sasha Talevski used his instincts as a striker to rush through and touch the ball over the line as it dropped the right side of the crossbar down into the goalmouth.

The win allowed Fraser to skip six points clear overnight, but that lead was reduced to three again the next day.

LEADING SCORERS:

21 Matthew Zec (Fraser Park)

FINAL ROUND PREVIEW

Only a Hajduk win and a Fraser Park loss can prevent the latter side achieving their target of the Second Division title at the first attempt, following their elevation from 4th Division the previous year.

Even goal difference would not be enough to save Hajduk who, were the results to go their way, still require a play-off to achieve promotion.

Midweek games at Greystanes and Sydney University also held some interest, but at opposite ends of the ladder.

Sydney Uni needed to beat Sydney District to stay in the top four race, having dropped a further point behind last weekend.

Hajduk face a tricky match at Arncliffe on Sunday where the home side is anxious to preserve its top four ranking again. A win is going to be a tall order for Hajduk, but they will be fired up for sure and should just about manage it given their extra motivation.

Fraser, on the other hand, really only need a point against Mount Druitt, a side that beat them 1-0 in the first half of the season. It is unlikely that the home side will play for that precious point, attack being more their caper, but they may well shut up shop late in the game if they can get a handy lead at some stage.

They are more likely to celebrate in style with some goalscoring from their formidable strike force.

Matthew Zec holds a two-goal lead over Hajduk's Damien Brown and is very keen to get his hands on that prize. His goal-a-game average that he shares with Brown shows how dominant the pair have been this season.

In other games Unit of NSW meets Greystanes in what is little more than an end of season drill, while Belmore has a game against Sydney University that could hand University a last gasp place in the four.

Mt Pritchard plays Hills United who may still needs points of midweek games go the wrong way, while Sydney District has a very tough task to hold out Hurstville whose need is to get a point or more to cement fourth spot.

Gold Medal NIGHT

PETER PRESTON - Gold Medal Winner

The New South Wales Soccer Federation's annual Gold Medal winner was held last Friday evening at the Bellevue Function Centre in Bankstown, with the highlight being the calculation of the Gold Medal winner.

Points awarded by the opposing captain during every Super League game this season had been added up, and it going into the very last round Peter Preston of the Central Coast and Matthew Borg of Fairfield were neck and neck on 31 points.

These best of friends didn't have long to wait to find out the winner, with Preston taking out the prestigious award to follow last years joint winners, Jim Nikas and John Buonavoglia.

Hosted by Rob Wheatley, the night started in a sombre mood when Mr Peter Gray, the President of the New South Wales Soccer Federation, requested a minutes silence for Mr Kevin D'arcy, who passed away three weeks ago. Mr D'arcy was well-known to soccer followers who attended national and international matches, and the minutes silence was well observed.

In between meals various awards were given out, with the following being awarded.

Combined tables

Super Youth League

With just three rounds of the 1999 regular season left the Blacktown City Demons look certain to finish top of the Super Youth League combined table.

Although, mathematically, Sydney Olympic could catch them, it would mean the Demons losing their last three rounds in all four grades, with Olympic winning all theirs. While not noted for its bold predictions, Super Soccer will stick its neck out and say that it thinks the Demons have the title sewn up!

It actually wasn't the best weekend for the leaders, only picking up four points against the Parramatta Eagles at Melita Stadium, but they have a forty-point lead over Sydney Olympic, who picked up nine points against Sydney United.

In third place are the Newcastle Breakers, who are just six points behind Olympic but has played one round of matches more. The Breakers picked up seven points away at Wollongong, which sees them six points ahead of the Gladesville Hornsby Association, who took ten points from the Manly Warringah Dolphins.

In fifth place is Marconi Fairfield, who were another team to pick up ten points, while Wollongong sits in sixth spot after their matches with Newcastle.

At the bottom Eastern Suburbs will need a big effort to lift itself off the foot of the table, and they picked up one point from their G16 draw with Marconi Fairfield. Twelve points above them are the Dolphins, who also took one point, and a further seven points clear are the Central Coast, who picked up five points from a double set of fixtures against the Southern Districts on the Saturday and against the Leichhardt Tigers on the Sunday.

Division One Youth League

There were a number of re-arranged games in the Division One Youth League and its much closer at the top of the combined table.

AC United lead the way with just two rounds remaining but any of the top six teams could take out the top spot.

AC are seven points clear of Ryde City but had a shocking weekend, taking just four points from their two matches. Out of a possible twenty-four points on offer they could have really made it hard for the top teams to catch them.

Ryde on the other hand took thirteen points from the games on Saturday and Sunday, although once again will look at a couple of defeats which could have seen them much closer to the leaders.

Illawara in third are just two points behind the Gunners, after only being able to collect three points from their match with Hills United, and the Bankstown Association are just three points behind them after collecting eighteen points from their two rounds of games. In fifth the Bonnyrigg White Eagles picked up eight points against the Blacktown Association, while at the bottom Canterbury Marrickville look doomed to last spot after losing their four games with the Penrith Panthers. The Fairfield Bulls are fifteen points above them after picking four points up against Ryde on Saturday, and then there is a big gap with the Canterbury Association in third to bottom.

Division Two Youth League

There's just one round to go in the Division Two Youth League, and the Nepean Association look certain to take top spot in the combined table.

They are eight points clear of the second-placed Mt Pritchard, and the Association side confirmed their strength on Saturday with maximum twelve points away at CSI Schofields.

Mt Pritchard on the other hand were only able to pick up a solitary point against Mt Druitt, and with a superior goal difference the Nepean Association will go into this weeks game at Parramatta City knowing a win and a draw will be enough to finish first.

There's five teams then from third to seventh all within eleven points of each other, headed by the Ku-ring-gai Association who could only manage four points against Macquarie Sports.

Moorebank Sports at the bottom will play on both the Saturday and Sunday, but they are eighteen points behind CSI Schofields and, like their rivals at the bottom, were unable to collect a single point in their games with the Camden Tigers.

Super Youth League

Round 27 review

G13

With just three games left to play there is no catching the Blacktown City Demons, who wrapped up top spot some time ago. They remain unbeaten as well after a 3-1 win against the Parramatta Eagles at Melita Stadium, although the Eagles did well to score a rare goal against the top team.

Super Youth League

Round 28 action

Marconi Fairfield v Leichhardt Tigers Marconi no 2
Sutherland Sharks v Gladesville Hornsby Association Bates Drive
Manly Warringah Dolphins v Parramatta Eagles Cromer Park
Blacktown City Demons v Sydney United Gabbie Stadium
Sydney Olympic v Macarthur Rams Potts Park
Southern Branch v Southern Districts South Nowra Complex
Central Coast v Newcastle Breakers Pluim Park no 2
Eastern Suburbs v Wollongong Wolves Hensley Athletic Field

all matches to be played Saturday August 14

Wollongong are in second some seventeen points behind the leaders and they picked up a 2-0 win over Newcastle, but while Sydney Olympic are four points behind the Wolves they do have two games in hand. Their latest success was a 3-1 win at Sydney United.

The Breakers are fourth after their loss, with Leichhardt in fifth but with a game in hand on most clubs.

The Tigers actually played twice on the weekend and picked up maximum points, a 1-0 win over Sutherland on the Saturday and a victory by the same score on Sunday at the Central Coast.

The Eagles dropped to sixth. while the Gladesville Hornsby Association in seventh were held to a 1-1 draw against the Manly Warringah Dolphins.

Marconi Fairfield are eighth after their 3-1 win at Eastern Suburbs, and then its the Southern Districts who ensured the Coasties would get no joy from their double weekend with a 3-0 win.

There was a good win for the Southern Branch over Macarthur, 4-1 at Lynwood Park.

It looks like Eastern Suburbs have done just enough to ensure they won't finish last on the table, that dubious honour looking like going to the Central Coast.

G14

Sydney Olympic could wrap top spot up this weekend as they are seven points clear of their chasers and with a game in hand. Their latest victory came courtesy of a 6-0 win over Sydney United.

Blacktown are the club in second and they hold a slender one point advantage over two teams below them, as they were held to a 1-1 draw against the Parramatta Eagles.

The Gladesville Hornsby Association therefore closed the gap with a 2-1 win at Manly, while the team in fourth, Sydney United, missed out on putting pressure on Sydney Olympic after their defeat.

The Southern Districts are in fifth after their 4-0 success over the Central Coast, who the next day went down 5-0 to the Leichhardt Tigers. It proved another successful weekend for the Tigers, as they won 3-2 against Sutherland the day before.

Newcastle are in sixth and they defeated Wollongong 3-1 at Brandon Park, and they are now followed by Sutherland and Leichhardt.

Marconi Fairfield are in ninth spot after an 8-1 demolition of Eastern Suburbs.

The days other game saw the Macarthur Rams and Southern Branch share the points in a 1-1 draw.

As with the G13 competition it looks like going between the Central Coast and Eastern Suburbs for the wooden spoon, with the Wanderers having both a one point advantage and a game in hand over their rivals.

G15

Its tight at the top with two teams - Marconi Fairfield and the Blacktown City Demons - level on points after the weekends action. Blacktown are in second on goal difference but do have the advantage of a game in hand, but they went down to only their third defeat of the season when they lost 1-0 to the Parramatta Eagles.

There were no such slip ups from Marconi Fairfield though, as they defeated Eastern Suburbs 2-0 at the Hensley Athletic Field.

The Gladesville Hornsby Association are in third and five points behind the top two, although they picked up a 4-0 victory over the Manly Warringah Dolphins.

Those top three are well clear from the Southern Districts in fourth, and they went down 3-2 to the Central Coast on Saturday, the Coasties also picking up a good point in a 1-1 draw with Leichhardt on Sunday at Pluim Park.

The Tigers also picked up four points from their two games, defeating the Sutherland Sharks 1-0 at Lambert Park on the Saturday.

Sydney United are sixth after their 3-2 victory over Sydney Olympic, and Newcastle are in seventh after their 4-2 win away at the Wollongong Wolves.

The Southern Branch are bottom of the table but picked up a valuable 2-1 win against the Macarthur Rams, and with a game in hand over the Manly Warringah Dolphins could squeeze themselves off the foot of the table in the next three weeks.

G16

There's still plenty to pay for in the G16 competition, with Sydney Olympic two points clear and with a game in hand after they edged out Sydney United 3-2 away from home.

Newcastle are in second but were held to a 0-0 draw with the Wollongong Wolves, so Leichhardt joined them on fifty-seven points after defeating the Sutherland Sharks 5-2 and then drawing with the Central Coast 2-2 on Sunday.

That result proved to be the Coasties only success for the weekend, as they went down 3-0 to the Southern Districts on Saturday.

The Parramatta Eagles are in fourth and they picked up a good 1-0 win over the Blacktown City Demons, while Wollongong are in sixth and Marconi Fairfield, who drew 2-2 with Eastern Suburbs, in seventh.

The Gladesville Hornsby Association picked up a 3-0 win over the Manly Warringah Dolphins, while the Macarthur Rams moved above the Dolphins with a 2-1 win over the Southern Branch.

Eastern Suburbs will need to pick up at least seven points from their last four games to avoid finishing bottom, something that looks beyond them after the form they have displayed so far this year.

Division One Youth League

Round 24 review

There are just two games to go in the Division One Youth League, and six teams faced a double weekend last week in order to play some catch-up games.

G13

Saturday saw leaders Ilawara having a rare day off with their game being scheduled for a Sunday, so the Bankstown Association took full advantage and defeated Rockdale 2-0 to look like securing second spot.

The Blacktown Association are in third, five points behind but with a game in hand, but they were held to a 1-1 draw by the Bonnyirgg White Eagles.

AC United sit in fourth after a 1-1 draw on Saturday with St George. while the teams at the bottom of the table, Canterbury Marrickville and the Canterbury Association both lost. The Canterbury Marrickville side went down 2-1 at Penrith and the Association side lost 2-0 at Stanmore.

There was one other game on Saturday, Ryde City defeating the Fairfield Bulls 5-0.

Onto Sunday, and the Lions picked up a 2-0 win over Hills United, giving them a sixteen point lead at the top of the table and maintaining their unbeaten record.

The Bankstown Association won again, a 2-0 win over AC United being theiur second in two days and meaning that AC were only able to pick up one point from their two games.

Ryde had a good weekend as they made it two from two with a 2-1 win over the Canterbury Association, as did Penrith who added the scalp of St George, 2-0, to that of Canterbury Marrickville the day before.

G14

Ryde City have a fourteen point lead at the top of the G14 table, and their latest success came on Saturday with a 3-0 win at the Fairfield Bulls.

AC United are next bext but they went down to St George 2-1, while Bonnyrigg in third hammered the Blacktown Association 6-1 at the Serbian Centre.

Penmrith are fourth and they had a 3-0 home win over Canterbury Marrickville, and St George sit in fifth.

The Canterbury Association are in sixth but they went down to a 4-1 defeat at Stanmore, while one place behind them are Rockdale, who won 2-1 at home to the Bankstown Association.

On Sunday Ryde crashed to a surprise 1-0 home defeat at home to the Canterbury Association, but obviously they are so far ahead that there rare slip up won't matter.

AC United bounced back from Saturday's defeat with a 3-1 away win over the Bankstown Association, while Penrith and St George, fourth and fifth respectively, drew 0-0 at St George Stadium.

The days other game saw Hills United defeat the Illawara Lions 5-2 at the Fred Caterson Reserve.

G15

AC United look to have wrapped up the G15 top position, despite their 1-0 loss to St George on the weekend.

They have a six point lead over the Bonnyrigg White Eagles, who had closed the gap after winning 1-0 against the Blacktwown Association.

Hills United are third although they didn't play until the Sunday, defeating the Illawara Lions 2-1.

Penrith are in fourth and Saturday saw them defeat Canterbury Marrickville 4-0, while Ryde are in fifth but were held to a 0-0 draw at Fairfield. The Bankstown Association are next after their 2-0 win at Rockdale, while the other game on Saturday saw the Canterbury Association go to Pratten Park and defeat the Stanmore Hawks 4-0.

Sunday saw three re-arrranged games, with AC United going down to another 1-0 defeat, this time at the hands of the Bankstown Association, while Ryde made it four points out of a possible six with a 1-0 win over the Canterbury Association. Penrith though are four points above the Gunners after a 1-0 win at St George.

G16

The Bankstown Association cannot be caught at the top of the table after they picked up a 1-0 win over Rockdale on Saturday. Stanmore in second are nine points behind the leaders, after they went down 3-1 to the Canterbury Association.

The Blacktown Association are in third and they were held to a 0-0 draw with Bonnyrigg, while Ryde in fourth went down 1-0 to Fairfield on Saturday.

Illawara are in fifth after Sunday's 2-0 loss to Hills United, while Penrith are next after a 3-1 win on Saturdayt over Canterbury Marrickville and a 1-1 draw the following day at St George. The previous day the Saints had defeated AC United 1-0, and the boys from Abruzzi Oval also went down on the Sunday, losing 4-1 to the Bankstown Association.

Ryde could have been in third place after the weekends games, but they lost on Sunday 4-1 at home to the Canterbury Association.

Division Two Youth League

Round 21 review

With just this weeks matches to go in Division two Youth League before the finals series starts there's still all to play for in the age groups.

G13

The only age group where the top spot has been decided, with the Nepean Association taking the honours in style, winning 7-0 at CSI Schofields. The Ku-ring-gai Association could have taken it down to the last game of the season, but they drew 0-0 with Macquarie Sports, handing the top spot to the Nepean Association who have only lost three times this season.

Mt Pritchard are in third after playing twice on the weekend, drawing 1-1 with Mt Druitt on Saturday and then defeating the Camden Tigers 1-0 on Sunday. Macquarie Sports are in fourth after the draw that halted the Ku-ring-gai Associations quest for the top spot, and they also play twice this weekend.

Mt Druitt are in fifth and should end up finishing there, while in sixth the Camden Tigers beat Moorebank 2-0 before their Sunday defeat.

Hajduk Wanderers are next and they drew 1-1 with the Granville Association, who are in eighth spot, and next is Hawkesbury City who defeated the bottom club Parramatta City 2-0 at the Eric Primrose Rose.

G14

Just one point separates the top three teams, but top spot is in the Macquarie Sports hands, as they have a double weekend coming up and also have the best goal difference.

They sit on top after a 3-2 win over the Ku-ring-gai Association, while Mt Pritchard, who are level on forth points, also picked up three points, but from two games.

Saturday saw them lose 1-0 to Mt Druitt at home, although they did bounce back with a 2-1 win over the Camden Tigers on the Sunday.

The Nepean Association are just a point behind the top two after their 1-0 win at CSI Schofields, and there's a four point gap between them and the Camden Tigers, who defeated the Moorebank Sports side 3-1 on Saturday before Sunday's loss to Mt Pritchard.

The Ku-ring-gai Association are in fifth, but the two teams below them, the Granville Association and CSI Schofields, could both overtake them if they win their games in hand on Sunday.

Last weekend the Granville Association defeated Hajduk Wanderers 5-1, while the days other game saw Hawkesbury City defeat Parramatta City 2-0.

Moorebank Sports have unfortunately finished at the bottom of the table, and Hajduk Wanderers will look for a win with their game in hand this weekend to try and get above Parramatta City.

G15

Hajduk Wanderers should seal top spot this weekend, with a two-point lead over Parramatta City and a game in hand. They were held to a 1-1 draw on Saturday though against the Granville Association, giving a faint glimmer of hope for Parramatta City, who defeated Hawkesbury City 3-0.

Mt Pritchard are in third but well behind the top two, and they recovered from a 1-0 defeat on Saturday against Mt Druitt to get a 2-1 win over the Camden Tigers on Sunday.

The Ku-ring-gai Association are in fourth but went down 2-1 to Macquarie Sports, who are one place below their opponents and with a game in hand. It would take some remarkable goal scoring though this weekend for Macquarie Sports to go above their Association rivals on goal difference.

The Nepean Association is sixth and hammered CSI Schofields 7-0 and one place behind them is Mt Druitt, who upset Mt Pritchard.

The days other game saw the Camden Tigers defeat Moorebank Sports 2-0, although they were unable to follow up that win with another against Mt Pritchard a day later.

It should be an exciting weekend at the bottom of the table, with the bottom three separated by just two points and all three playing on both Saturday and Sunday. Hawkesbury City is at the bottom at the moment, but its either them, the Granville Association or CSI Schofields who will finish bottom.

G16

The Nepean Association, like their G13 side, cannot be caught at the top of the table after a 2-0 win over CSI Schofields. The main reason for that though is that the team in second, the Camden Tigers, who had only lost twice all season, lost their catch-up game on Sunday when they went

The day before they had beaten Moorebank Sports 1-0, but Sunday's loss means they finish second.

Mt Druitt is third and they defeated fourth-placed Mt Pritchard 4-1, although Mt Pritchard did get something out of the weekend when they defeated the Camden Tigers the following day.

Hajduk Wanderers are fifth despite their 2-1 defeat by the Granville Association, and the Ku-ring-gai Association are next after they beat Macquarie Sports by the same scoreline.

Parramatta City is eighth and they defeated Hawkesbury City 2-1.

Both the bottom two, Moorebank Sports and CSI Schofields, will be hoping to pick something up from this weekends games, although it looks like Moorebank will finish last unless they can pick a win up on either day.

Cadet League Division One

Round 19 review

G11

Leaders Canterbury Marrickville sat out the weekend with a bye, so it gave some of the chasers a glimmer of hope in making up some ground.

Sydney United had two games in hand going into the game and were six points adrift, and while they defeated St George 3-1 at St George Stadium in a round 17 re-arranged match, they lost their round 19 match at home to the Leichhardt Tigers 1-0. It could prove to be a costly slip-up.

St George went above Marconi Fairfield and into third despite their loss to Sydney United, as they hammered Parramatta City 9-0, while Marconi Fairfield were held to a 0-0 draw with the Parramatta Eagles.

Leichhardt sit in fifth spot and the Eagles are sixth, while Macarthur are in seventh after losing 1-0 at home to Ryde City.

The days other game saw Eastern Suburbs lose 4-2 at home to the Bonnyrigg White Eagles.

G12

Sydney United stretched their lead at the top of the G12 table after picking up two wins. They accounted for St George 2-1 in a re-arranged match, then downed the Leichhardt Tigers on Sunday 3-0 to open up a nine point lead.

The team in second, Parramatta Eagles, were held to a 1-1 draw with Marconi Fairfield, who are fourth, while in third St George could only pick a draw up after losing to Sydney United, drawing 2-2 with Parramatta City at home.

The Macarthur Rams are in fifth spot and they won 4-0 over Ryde City, but the Gunners should be safe at the bottom as Parramatta City are four points behind them.

Cadet League Division Two

Round 23 and 24 review

There was a double weekend of matches in the Cadet League Division Two, which means there are just two more matches in the regular season to go. There were also some re-arranged matches played mid-week, as the teams at the top look to clinch their first place.

G11

After Saturday's games Macquarie Sports had stayed on 51 points after not playing, so the Illawara Lions went top after their 4-0 win over Hajduk Wanderers.

Penrith also made some ground on the leaders after they went to Bensons Lane and won 3-1 against Hawkesbury City, who went into the game in fourth spot.

During the week Stanmore had smashed seven without reply past Moorebank Sports, and the Hawks also picked up a 4-1 win over Mt Pritchard, while Moorebank also went down to a defeat on the Saturday, losing 2-1 at home to Hurstville City.

CSI Schofields had lost 2-0 at Hills United in a round 20 re-scheduled match, but picked up a point with a 1-1 draw against AC United at home.

The other re-arranged match saw Hajduk Wanderers beat bottom team Mt Druitt 2-1 during the week.

Onto Sunday, and with Illawara having a bye Macquarie Sports went back to the top of the table with a 2-0 win over Hawkesbury City. Penrith had another good win after defeating CSI Schofields 3-0, and Hurstville were another team to pick up two wins from a productive weekend, winning 3-0 over Mt Druitt.

Hills United look dangerous as they won 3-1 over Moorebank Sports, and Hajduk Wanderers bounced back from their defeat the day before to win 1-0 over Mt Pritchard.

Sunday's other game saw AC United defeat the Stanmore Hawks 1-0 at Abruzzi Oval.

G12

Stanmore picked up seven points from three games last week, as they started off with a 2-0 win over Moorebank and then hammered Mt Pritchard 6-0 on Saturday. They couldn't make it three out of three on Sunday though, as they were held to a 1-1 draw with AC United.

Macquarie Sports went into the game in second place and defeated Hawkesbury City 2-1 on Sunday in round 24 action, Hawkesbury having lost the previous day by the same scoreline to Penrith.

The Panthers themselves went down on the Sunday, 3-0 to CSI Schofields, who had drawn with AC united the day before, 1-1, a repeat of the result they got in their game with Hills United during the week.

Illawara defeated Hajduk 6-0 on Saturday, the Wanderers then turning that around the next day with a 7-0 win over Mt Pritchard.

Mt Druitt defeated Hajduk Wanderers 2-0 in a round 20 re-arranged match, while Hurstville City beat Moorebank Sports 1-0 in the regular round 23 game.

Sunday's other games saw Hills United defeat Moorebank 3-1, and Hurstville City went down by the same scoreline to Mt Druitt.
